Conditions of Sale

1. ALL BIDS TO BE PER LOT. They are executed free of charge by the Walpole Galleries and the items are bought at the lowest price permitted by competitive bids.

2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in case of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision will be final. He may also reject any fractional or nominal bid calculated to delay or injuriously affect the sale.

3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

4. GOODS BOUGHT TO BE REMOVED AT THE CLOSE OF THE SALE. If not so removed, they will be held at the risk of the purchaser and these Galleries will not be responsible if such goods are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed. No deliveries will be made during the sale.

5. TERMS CASH. If accounts are not paid at the conclusion of the sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, these Galleries reserve the right to dispose of the goods without notice to the defaulting buyer and all costs of such re-sale will be charged to the defaulter. This condition is without prejudice to the rights of the Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such re-sale at its own option.

6. This catalogue has been compiled by a competent cataloguer, the various lots offered are described with care and accuracy and they will be sold not subject to return.

7. The Walpole Galleries, if requested, will forward purchases at the buyer's risk and expense.

AMERICAN INDIAN MATERIAL

161. INDIAN. INDIAN DRAWINGS IN COLOR. Over 100 drawings in colored crayons and some in water-colors, made on the leaves of a narrow, tall ledger, and mainly in the "seventies." They principally represent Cheyennes, but Crows, Pawnees and Snakes and U. S. soldiers are also represented. Titles have been written against each.

A VERY REMARKABLE AND INTERESTING COLLECTION.

The subjects include: attack in 1874 on train near the Washita, escort under Major Lyman; Soldiers charging at Powder River; Shoshone village attacked by Cheyennes; Cheyenne camp attacked at Powder River; Soldiers attacking Cheyennes; Soldiers pursued and killed by Cheyennes; a drawing of an Indian dance; Indian Courting Scenes; etc. As the drawings seem to have been executed about the time of the Custer Massacre, it is possible that event is reflected in them. A good many show combats with U. S. troopers who, naturally, are getting the worst of it.
